To the Public.

R. W. COREY still keeps a boarding house a few doors below the Central House, where transient visitors can always be accommodated. Call on him, and judge for yourself.

To the Farmers of East Tennessee.

Our armies need all the Hogs and Cattle you can fatten, and liberal prices will be paid for pork Hogs, Beers, Corn, &c., in East Tennessee, and will appoint a sufficient number of agents to meet you, and defend their territory, and will in due time publish more names.

I have determined to make prices "uniform" and liberal, and I hope every hog in East Tennessee will be for pork, will be fattened.

My office, for the present, is Atlanta, Ga., and I will move to Knoxville soon. Letters addressed to me at either point will be attended to.

J. P. CUMMING,
Major and C. S. C. S. A.
